

Facility & Equipment Overview

Toronto Outpatient Surgery Centre · 90 Eglinton Avenue East, Suite 701

The Toronto Outpatient Surgery Centre is a purpose-built, private outpatient facility on the 7th floor of 90 Eglinton Avenue East. The centre pairs hospital-grade operating suites with modern anaesthetic, monitoring and energy technology, supported by on-site reprocessing and a dedicated recovery floor. The following is a representative summary of our suites and equipment.

3

OPERATING SUITES

1

MINOR PROCEDURE ROOM

7

RECOVERY SPACES

2

OVERNIGHT SUITES

Operating Suites

- Three fully-equipped operating rooms (OR 1, OR 2, OR 3) plus a dedicated minor procedure room
- STERIS mobile operating tables with full articulation and positioning attachments
- STERIS dual-head LED surgical lighting
- Wall-mounted HD surgical displays in each suite
- Dedicated medical gas room and in-suite gas outlets

Anaesthesia & Patient Monitoring

- Mindray anaesthesia delivery systems
- Multiparameter patient monitoring (ECG, NIBP, SpO₂, EtCO₂, temperature)
- Difficult-airway and emergency airway equipment
- Anaesthetic medication carts and controlled-access storage

Energy & Electrosurgical Devices

- Bovie electrosurgical generators
- Apyx Medical Renuvion (J-Plasma) energy system
- Surgical smoke evacuation
- Procedure-specific instrument sets and specialty trays

Sterile Processing & Safety

- On-site Medical Device Reprocessing (MDR) department
- Separate clean storage and biomedical/soiled storage
- HemoForce sequential compression (SCD) for VTE prophylaxis
- Crash cart, defibrillator and emergency medications on site
- Reverse-osmosis water and monitored reprocessing logs

Pre-Operative & Recovery

- Three private admitting / prep rooms
- Dedicated PACU recovery floor for up to seven patients
- Two private overnight suites with ensuite washrooms
- Nurse-monitored Phase I and Phase II recovery

Facility & Support

- Male and female change rooms with surgeon lockers
- Private surgeon office and administrative work space
- Dedicated staff and patient corridors
- Central-Toronto location with on-site patient parking

Equipment listed is representative and may change as inventory is updated. For a detailed list or to arrange a facility tour, please contact our team.